CAMPUSES

UFV.CA/ABOUT/CAMPUSES

UFV has campuses across the Fraser Valley.

ABBOTSFORD

UFV's largest campus is home to a new student centre, a large library, student housing, and an athletic centre. The Clearbrook Centre and Aerospace Centre are also in Abbotsford.

CHILLIWACK

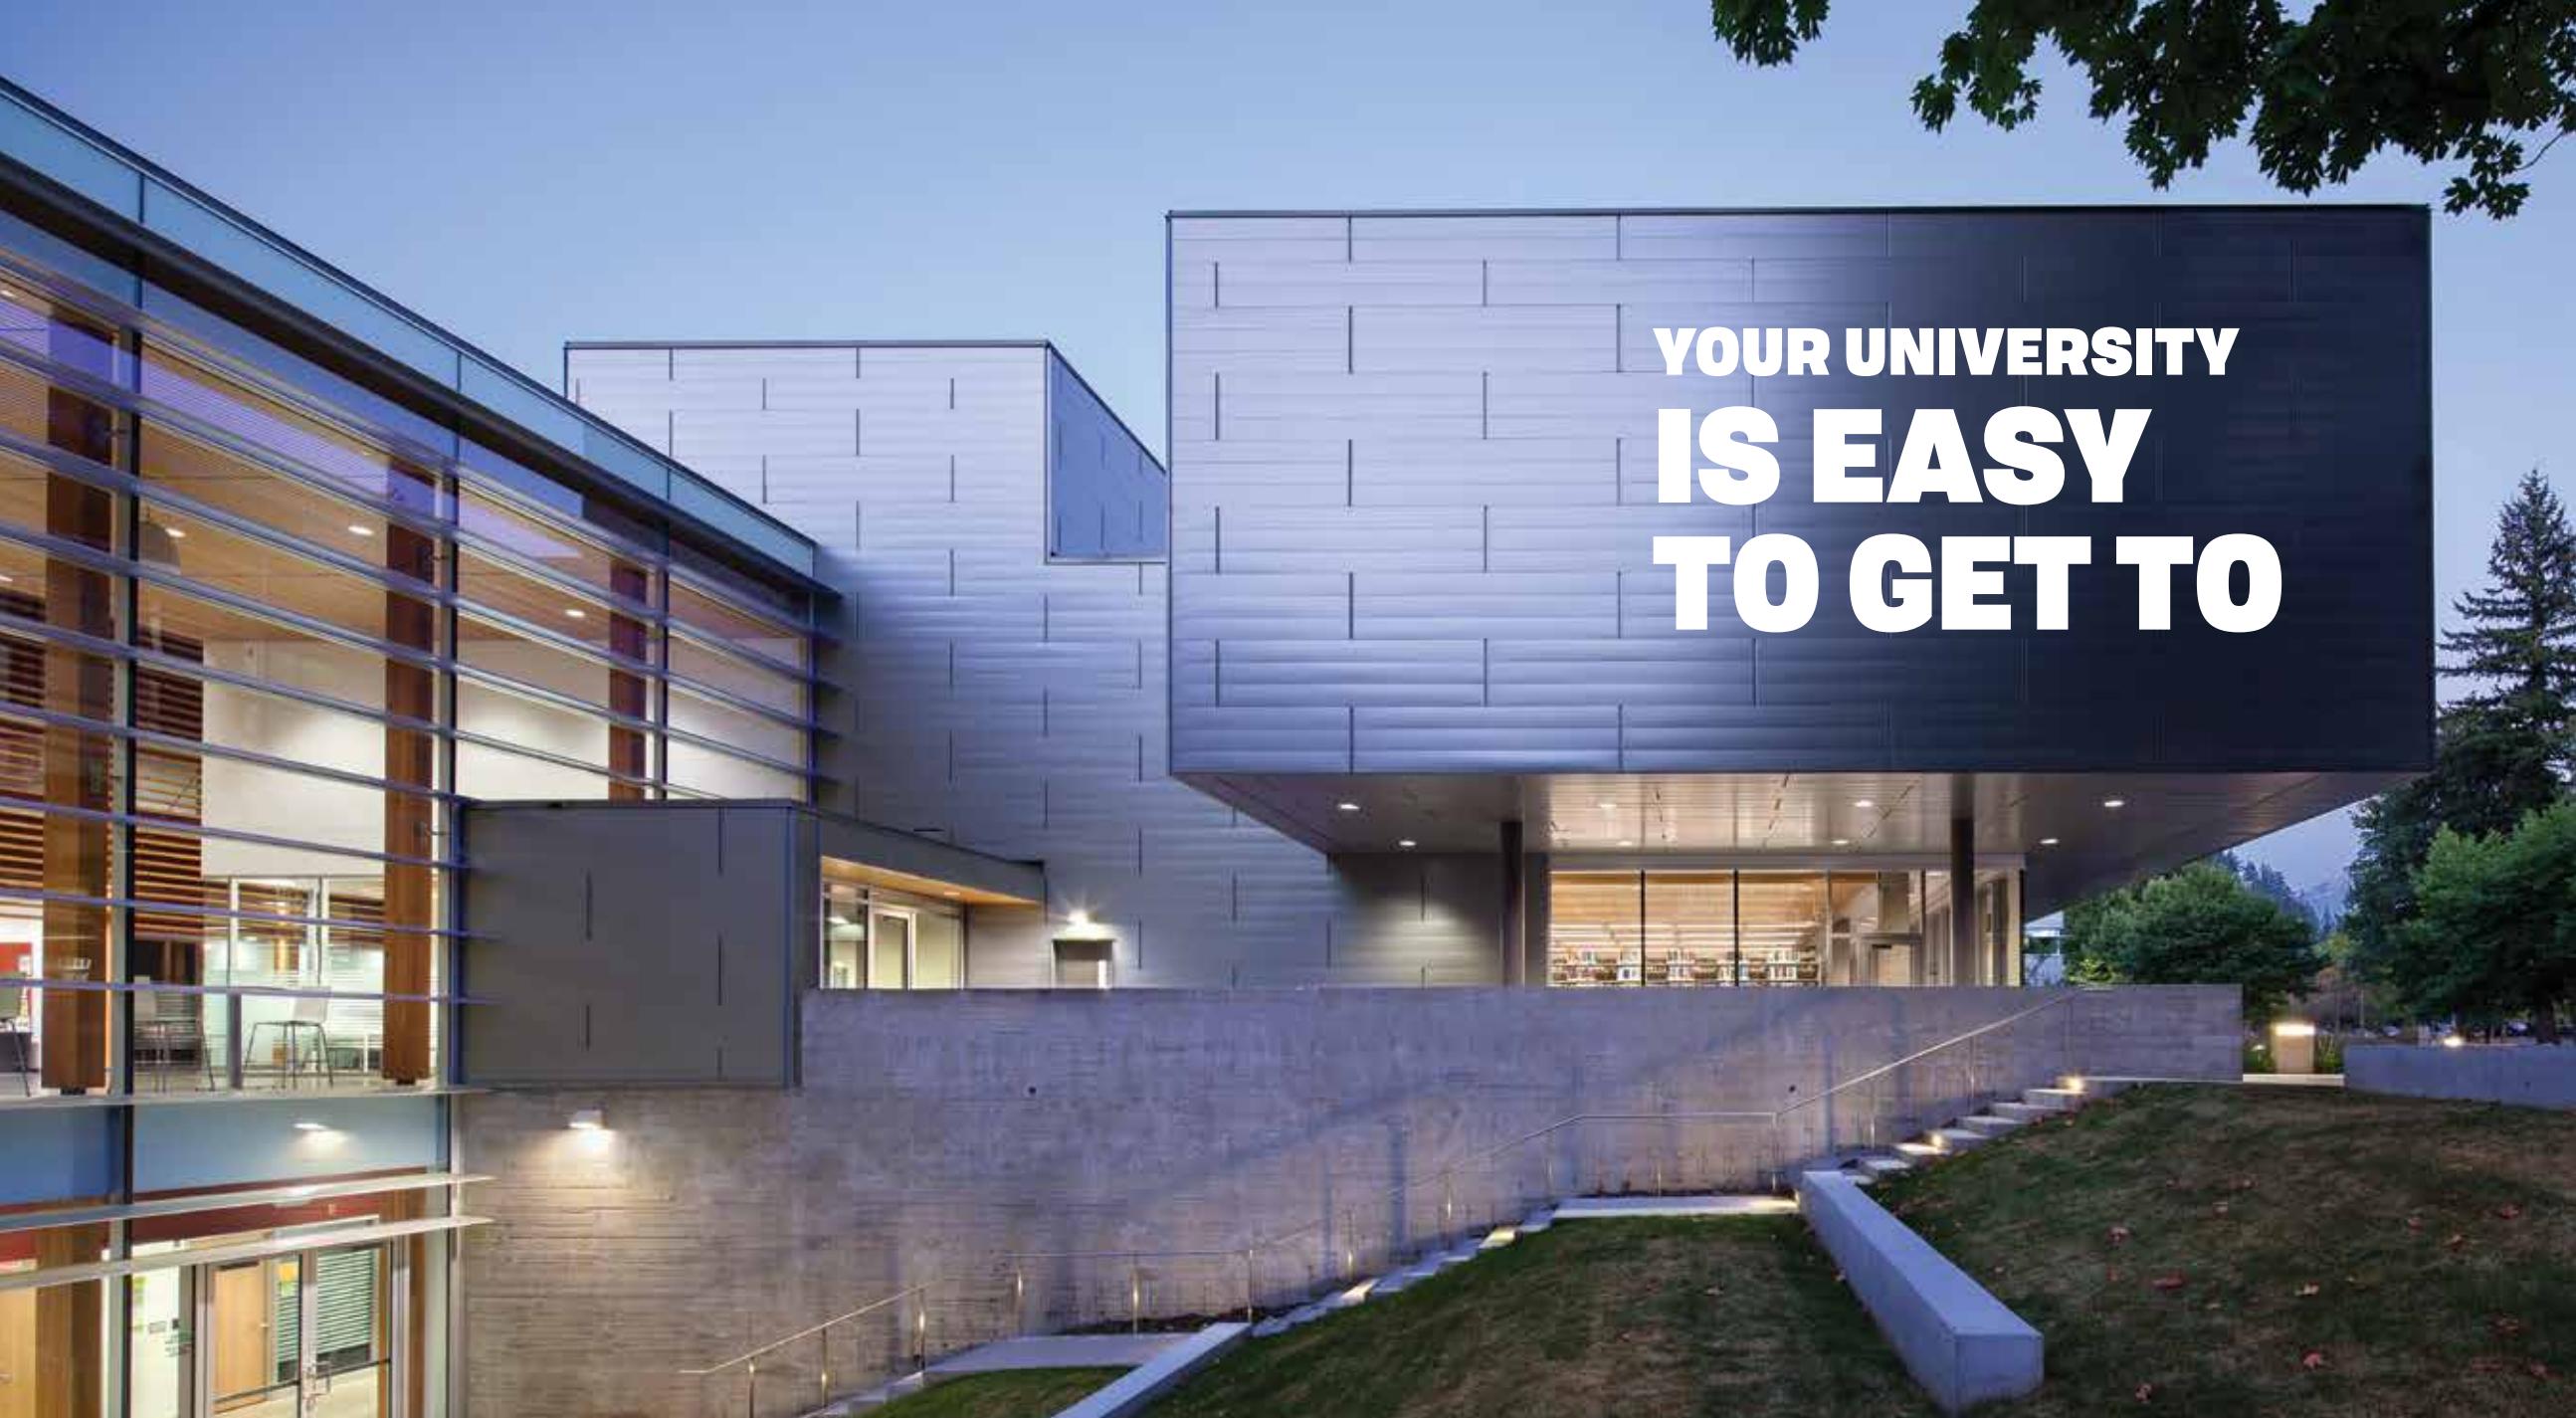

UFV's second-largest campus offers programs in applied and technical studies (trades), agriculture, and health sciences, as well as first- and second-year courses in many other disciplines.

MISSION

UFV's Mission campus offers a selection of academic courses, and is home to our Graphic and Digital Design program.

HOPE

UFV Hope Centre serves the local community with upgrading and continuing education courses.

The Student Union Society (SUS) Campus Connector shuttle offers service between Langley, Abbotsford, and Chilliwack. As a student, you will receive a U-Pass for use on local transit systems.

YOUR UNIVERSITY PREPARES YOU FOR YOUR CAREER

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Participate in our experiential learning opportunities and apply your academic knowledge to the real world. Meet your personal and professional goals while building your network and developing yourself as a well-rounded and highly employable graduate.

Opportunities include career education, co-operative education, work-integrated learning, curricular-based experiential learning, co-curricular engagement, work-study programs, and volunteering. Choose from a variety of placements in Canada and abroad.

CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION (CO-OP)

UFV.CA/JOBS

Connect your classroom studies to the real world by gaining work experience related to your program area. Co-op students work as employees and are normally paid at regular market rates. This allows you to alternate academic studies with paid work terms in a career-related field. Not only do you earn money and develop contacts, you also graduate with a degree and relevant career experience. Past co-op placements include:

- IBM
- Boeing Canada
- Canada Revenue Agency
- Prospera Credit Union
- Deloitte

WORK ON OR OFF CAMPUS

There are lots of opportunities for flexible, part-time jobs on campus at UFV, giving you the opportunity to build your resume while working alongside UFV faculty and staff.

International students studying in full-time academic programs may also be able to work off campus for up to 20 hours per week. This can help you learn more about the Canadian workplace, develop new skills, and make valuable connections in the community.

RESEARCH

UFV.CA/RESEARCH

Engaging in research early in your academic career can help you obtain scholarships, awards, and graduate school positions. This is part of UFV's commitment to provide you with the best undergraduate education in Canada. Not only do we encourage our faculty to incorporate research in their teaching, but we also support our students to conduct research and share their findings.

FIELD SCHOOLS

Field schools are a great opportunity for students who are looking to gain an international experience, but are short on time. Previous field schools have taken place in: Washington, DC; Paris, France; Tofino, British Columbia; Reykjavík, Iceland; and London, UK.

INSTITUTIONAL TRANSFERS

BCTRANSFERGUIDE.CA

If we do not have the program you want, you can still begin your studies at UFV and then transfer your credits to another BC university, such as UBC or UVic.

Starting your studies at UFV gives you a great advantage because you can benefit from close interaction with professors, excellent student support, and affordable tuition. With a strong academic start, you will be better prepared to succeed at UFV or another institution.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENT

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

All applicants to UFV must have completed the equivalent of Canadian Grade 12 graduation. Equivalencies vary from country to country and a complete list can be found at international.ufv.ca. You will be requested to provide official copies of your high school transcripts.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENTS

English is the language of instruction at UFV, so you must demonstrate English language proficiency to gain admission to UFV programs. There are a number of ways to meet UFV's English language proficiency requirements, including the IELTS and TOEFL iBT tests.

For a complete list of acceptable scores, visit ufv.ca/calendar.

Samples of English language proficiency for entry to degree or diploma programs may include:

- IELTS – an overall score of at least 6.5 with no band less than 6.0.
- TOEFL iBT – a minimum score of 88, with no section below 20 (UFV's TOEFL code is 9736).
- BC English 12 – C+ or higher.

UFV requires that scores are received directly from testing centres and are no more than two years old at the time of application.

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

Some programs have specific entrance requirements in addition to Grade 12 graduation and English language proficiency. These may include completion of specific courses with certain grades or averages, written statements, references, etc. Refer to the program requirements in this book or visit ufv.ca/calendar.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE UPGRADING

If you need to improve your English language proficiency or academic skills, UFV offers programs to meet your specific needs. Depending on your level of English language proficiency, you can begin upgrading at various stages of the English Language Studies (ELS) program. It usually takes one semester (four months) to complete each level.

LEVEL	INTERMEDIATE	ADVANCED	UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION	QUALIFYING STUDIES
Focus	English language upgrading	English language upgrading	Combination of English language and academic upgrading	Combination of academic skills upgrading and university courses*

UNIVERSITY GLOSSARY

Alumni: Students who have graduated from a school, college, or university.

Bachelor's degree: Sometimes referred to as baccalaureate degrees, this credential is a four-year degree, meaning it generally requires four years of full-time study to complete.

Certificate: This credential typically takes one year of full-time study to complete. At UFV, many certificates 'ladder' into diploma or degree programs, giving you the option to pursue further education after completing your program.

Class: Many recurring classes make up a course.

Co-operative education: Co-operative Education (Co-op) combines academic studies with relevant work experience. Academic semesters alternate with work terms, giving you up to two years of relevant work experience.

Course: A set of teaching, or set of classes. Courses typically last one academic term.

Credential: A qualification awarded by UFV to recognize successful completion of a program.

Diploma: This credential typically takes two years of full-time study to complete. At UFV, diplomas typically 'ladder' into degree programs, allowing you to pursue further education after graduating.

Double major: Students pursuing a double major within a bachelor's degree program are expanding the scope of their study to specialize in more than one area.

Elective: Elective courses are not required for a major or minor, but are taken to meet the credit hour requirement for a particular credential.

Faculty: The teaching staff of a school, university, or college.

Full-time studies: At UFV, students taking at least nine credit hours (the equivalent of three courses) per semester, are considered full-time students.

GPA: GPA, or Grade Point Average, is calculated as the total number of grade points received over a set period, divided by the total number of credits awarded.

Joint major: This path of study combines courses from two disciplines in a way that fewer courses are taken for each major separately, while still completing enough courses to earn a combined major from each discipline.

Laboratory: Smaller, more individual course component, often used for experiential learning and research.

Lecture: Classroom-based instruction, often for large groups of learners.

Major: A field of study chosen by students as their principal interest area.

Master's degree: Also referred to as a graduate degree, some students choose to continue their studies after obtaining a bachelor's degree.

Minor: A field of study chosen by students as their secondary interest area. Minors have their own set of required courses.

Part-time studies: At UFV, part-time studies consist of taking less than nine credit hours (the equivalent of three courses).

Prerequisite course: A course that must be completed before taking another course. Prerequisite courses can be either high school or university-level courses.

Professor: Another term for teachers at the university level.

Program: A combination of courses and requirements leading to a credential.

Required course: A course that must be completed in order to meet the requirements for a degree.

Scholarship: Financial assistance offered to a student, often based on academic performance.

Semester: A division of the academic year. At UFV, each semester is four months long.

Tuition: A fee or payment for studying at UFV.
