VU SEMESTER IN AMSTERDAM

Semester in Amsterdam is an all-inclusive, non-degree programme for students wishing to study in Amsterdam for one semester or a full academic year. Through the Semester in Amsterdam Programme, applicants gain the freedom to select their own courses or follow a cohesive minor. Students choose from 1000+ English-taught courses in nine faculties and enjoy a full schedule of social activities as well as on-site advising and support. The Semester in Amsterdam programme accepts enrolled students as well as free movers, working professionals, families, and other non-traditional applicants.

VRIJE UNIVERSITEIT AMSTERDAM

Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam is an internationally renowned research university. Since its founding in 1880 the university has grown to comprise 9 faculties and 26,000 students, 10% of which are international. Providing high quality education in small and interactive classes, VU Amsterdam is consistently ranked among the world's top universities. With more than 150 English-taught Bachelor's and Master's programmes, the university offers a wide range of study options. The centralized campus is in the heart of Amsterdam's business district, a dynamic hub only 15 minutes from the city center.

COURSES

Courses at VU Amsterdam are mixed with Dutch and international students to maximize your cross-cultural contact. In the fall and spring semester you can choose 1000+ English-taught Bachelor's or Master's courses from nine faculties. Alternatively, in the fall semester you can choose a specialized combination of courses in a specific field, known as a Minor programme. Minor programmes are offered at the Bachelor level but are also open to Master students. Additionally, you can select honour courses or Dutch language electives. Semester in Amsterdam students also receive a discount on VU Amsterdam Summer School and VU Graduate Winter School courses.
